HISTORY

The city and county of Sumter bear the name of General Thomas Sumter, the "Fighting Gamecock" of the American Revolutionary War. His place in U.S. history is secure as a patriot and military genius. Born in Virginia in 1734, Thomas Sumter settled in St. Mark's Parish in 1767. He founded the town of Statesburg, where his financial interests included a sawmill, grist mill, general store and a large plantation. He and his wife, Mary Cantey, had one son, Thomas Jr., born in 1768. The city of Sumter is the seat of Sumter County and the largest city, the eighth largest metropolitan area in the state of South Carolina. Incorporated as Sumterville in 1845, the city's name was shortened to Sumter in 1855. It has grown and prospered from its early beginnings as a plantation settlement.

Welcome to the Neighborhood!

The Greater Sumter Chamber of Commerce extends a warm welcome to you and your family as you become familiar with your new home and neighborhood. Our organization is here to serve you and the business community. Please consider this your personal invitation to stop by our office to pick up a complimentary newcomer package of information regarding other community services, which may be helpful to you.

The Greater Sumter Chamber of Commerce is located at 32 East Calhoun Street in downtown Sumter. Our office hours are 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Our office number is (803) 775-1231. Visit us on the web! www.sumterchamber.com.

You will like Sumter! Everyone does. Located in the heart of South Carolina, we are just a two hour drive to the famous beaches of South Carolina and one hour from the Capital City. Sumter has over 40,000 population in the City with approximately 108,000 in the county. There are approximately 80,000 in the Greater Sumter Metropolitan Area with a service area of nearly 225,000. You will quickly find that Sumter can compete with any City it's size in the way of Education, cultural attractions, medical services and residential offerings. Sumter's southern charm will convince you that you are "in the middle of everything".

Thank you again for considering Sumter your home. Remember, if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to stop by or give us a call and we'll help you in any way we can.

We hope to see you soon!

Sincerely,

Grier Blackwelder

Grier U. Blackwelder
